

Handcrafted Lace Knitting and Ceramics

I am Janika Printsman and proud to be an Estonian.

Love of handicraft has accompanied me throughout my life and my biggest mentors were both grandmothers. Various knitting projects left me with an abundant amount of swatches that led me to create my very unique jewelry and bag line.

Although my biggest passion is lace knitting, I am also very fond of ceramics and will begin ceramics studies this coming winter.

I own a tiny craft company in Tallinn and enjoy selling my creations at craft fairs. You can find me on line as Pipieri as well as at <https://www.facebook.com/madebypipieri/>

The more I learn, I realize how little I know. (Socrates)

The More I learn less I realize I know (Sokrates)