

Pippin Studio

Jewelry by Kerli Pajusaar

The Pippin Studio brand is directed by Kerli Pajusaar, an Estonian designer whose creative talents began in childhood, with admiration for beauty, color and harmony. She graduated from Art School in Tartu in 2005 specializing in sculpture. After graduation Kerli worked in ceramics and glassworks. Pippin Studio was created in 2010, and is an umbrella for a variety of jewelry collections incorporating classic styles along with asymmetric and surprising color combinations. Wooden jewelry is embellished with miniature paintings on earrings. Pippin Studio prides itself with having a large variety of exciting colors, sizes and has developed three themes: "Women Love with Ears" / "Music for your Ears" / "Beauty on your Ears".

Pippin's joy is in creation, yours is enjoying that creation
